SPECIAL GUEST SPEAKER ON THE LAW OF THE SEA,

JOHN NORTON MOORE

1. Employees interested in the important international law of the sea negotiations are invited to a special address by Professor John Norton Moore in the Headquarters Auditorium on 14 November 1974 from 1:45 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. Professor Moore is chairman of the NSC Interagency Task Force on the Law of the Sea and Deputy Special Representative of the President to the UN Law of the Sea Conference. He will discuss the results of the Law of the Sea Conference recently held in Caracas, the current status of the negotiations, and prospects for the future.

2. Professor Moore has been Chairman of the NSC Interagency Task Force on the Law of the Sea since early 1973. He is on leave from the University of Virginia, where he is Professor of Law and Director of the Graduate Program and Sesquicentennial Associate of the University of Virginia Center for Advanced Studies, University of Virginia Law School. He has authored numerous books and articles on oceans law, national security issues, and constitutional aspects of the conduct of foreign relations. Recent books include Law and the Indo-China War, the Arab-Israeli Conflict, and Law and Civil War in the Modern World.

3. No reservations will be required for this lecture. Attendees are requested to be seated in the auditorium no later than 1:40 p.m.
